

Press Contact: Carolyn Ripp, 203-852-1261, ext. 107

Maritime Garage Gallery Winter Exhibit Highlights Storytelling

Norwalk, CT (January 4, 2018) - - It is said that every picture tells a story, The City of Norwalk Parking Authority's Maritime Garage Gallery winter exhibit entitled, "Worth a Thousand Words" conveys artists' renderings do just that. The exhibit will run from January 29 to May 11, 2018. There will be an opening reception with artists on January 29th at 5:00 p.m. that is open to the public. The Gallery is located in the Maritime Parking Garage exhibit space, 11 North Water Street in Norwalk, CT.

The exhibit, curated by Nadia Martinez, features works of art that communicate complex ideas in images. The 32 pieces in the "Worth a Thousand Words" exhibit show artists' stories, emotions, concerns, memories, and ideas about life, nature, hope, world events, humanity, etc. Exhibiting artists include local artists Day Moore from Milford, Bobbie Bernstein of Westport, Gregory Ziebell of Norwalk and Carol M. Battin from Stamford.

According to curator Martinez, the art in this exhibit truly convey a thousand words. "The pieces could inspire anyone to write a story; they take you places and allow you to contemplate them, you see the connections starting to happen on a two-dimensional form, the conspiracy between friends, and the reflections that are taking place in every sense of the word."

The Maritime Garage Gallery is part of the Parking Authority's "Art in Parking Places" placemaking initiative, an effort to support art in parking spaces. The gallery is free and open to the public from 9:00am -5:00pm, Monday through Friday. For more information, call 203- 831-9063, or visit www.norwalkpark.org/public-art.

#