Color Warms Up Winter Exhibit At The Maritime Garage Gallery

Norwalk, CT (February 8, 2019) - - The City of Norwalk Parking Authority's Maritime Garage Gallery's latest exhibit features art that brings a bit of spring to winter, through color. "Migrating Colors" runs from February 19 through May 10, 2019 with an opening reception on February 19th at 5:00 pm.

"The selection of the pieces for 'Migrating Colors' produces an intriguing juxtaposition between the artworks, which at the same time creates a dialogue that flows thru color," says curator Nadia Martinez. "The range of artworks in the exhibition goes from vibrant and brilliant colors that create a movement almost like explosions, to others that are evoking stillness and peace."

"Migrating Colors" exhibiting artists include Jay Petrow and Nancy Breakstone both from Westport, Kirstan Holtan from Stamford, Wilton resident Tara Kovach, Amy L Kaplan of Fairfield, Elizabeth Katz of Easton and Hamden resident Tim Nighswander.

The Maritime Garage Gallery is part of the Parking Authority's "Art in Parking Places" placemaking initiative, an effort to support art in parking spaces. The gallery is located at 11 North Water Street in the SoNo district of Norwalk. It is free and open to the public from 9:00am -5:00pm, Monday through Friday. For more information, call 203- 831-9063, or visit www.norwalkpark.org/public-art.
